ACTIVITIES

CLASS PROPHECY OF 1951

We, the mystic wizards, do declare the following are predictions and expectations of things to come for the members of the Syracuse High School Senior Class of 1951.

Arlen Bobeck was recently elected champion Rock Raiser of Stone Gap County. He is also noted for his sports writing in the Hicksville Tattler.

Darrell Grissamer, president of the Stretchy Rubber Company was recently asked to speak at the Old Hen's Club on the subject of "Rubber Bathtub Plugs and Their Many Uses."

Janet Fenstermacher, popular columnist, writes under the pen name of Lota Dirt, and has a daily column of advice to the Lovelorn and is counselor for social misfits. Her column is always found in the Coocumunga Chronicle.

Bobbie Johnson is considered to be the most reliable baby sitter in the vicinity. She has only a nominal fee of a dollar an hour plus eating privileges--and of course she has to be able to bring her boy friend with her.

1103656

Charlotte Miller, chief sparring partner of Amorius Aliwishes seriously wounded her better half when she threw a double curve and knocked Amorius through the floor of the ring.

Margaret Robinson, now the wife of a very prosperous farmer, is one of the more famous members of the Senior Class, as she had the first set of quadruplets of Kosciusko County.

Joyce Nine, due to her phobia for wanting to be immaculately clean, has married a toilet soap manufacturer, and is extremely happy.

Jon Bushong; we weren't able to predict his future, the draft board got him and the army can do anything to a guy; for example, Garner.

Bill Gladieux, more handsome than ever, has recently become captain of the Royale Mounties, in charge of investigating blubber stealing. Bill was made an honorary hero of the Royale Mounties when he captured five escaped prisoners from the Igloo Prison.

Sharon LeCount, head model of the Burlap Gown Salon, was recently voted best sack filler in the large city of Bagville.

Kathryn Huey became the first teacher of Reversed Psychology in the Crazytown School for Delinquent Boys

Charles Reagan has become famous in the radio world for his ability of announcing soap operas. His current program is Love Affairs of Fanny and Fred, sponsered by "Burpo," the pop with the built-in burp.

Katherine Kistler, one of the most prominent lady misers of the time recently donated $1 to the Advancement of Cactus Plants in Alaska. Surprise!

Arnold Grindle, world acclaimed author,added another book to his collection of World's Worst Sellers. The title of this manuscript is "How to Catch Glow Worms During the Daytime." It is rumored he gets his material from "Giggle Funnies."

Rosemary Gingerich, eminent lecturer on current subjects recently included in one of her talks "How to Teach Russian to a Low I. Q." Her hobby is designing crossword puzzles and necktie patterns.

Gareth Meek, contender for the middleweight championship for the Tin F oil Gloves, defeated Glass Jaw Kelly by a T.K.O. In the first round at the Tea Garden. The Cruncher has had forty knock-outs in the last two years. His hobby is making crunch-punch, the favorite drink of the Tea Garden. Cruncher Meek's only defeat since he started his profession was when he stood at the alter and said, "I do."

Beverly Sink was recently voted Miss Scotland Yard of 1960. She is an agent for the F.B.I.--Fresh Boys Investigator--and author of the new book "How to Resist Boys."

Steve Lung, Fore Admiral of the Navy, was decorated with the Distinguished Navy Cross when he heroically and bravely charged through a nurses' residence to help fix a zipper. He is President of the Organization of Old Gobs.

Margaret Kitson, alias Billie, infamous leader of the Deep Freeze Gang, (She always freezes her victims with that icy stare) is rumored to have started a conspiracy against education in general. She is one of the ten most unwanted lady criminals.

Jim Fry is one of the most successful politicians of our times. He has been governor of the State of Corruption for the last three terms and was candidate for President last year but was defeated by one vote, which was cast by his campaign manager. His motto is: "All for one and that one is me!"

Sasha Hire has recently become a dramatic soprano in the Metropolitan Opera Company of Screechburg. It is said that she is substantial but not fat. One of her more famous songs is Vigero.

Joy Stuckman, voted most up-to-date girl in town on all family matters and social functions,also all old ladies' afflictions, and an authority on the latest happenings. Her occupation-head telephone operator.

1103656

Barbara Brown, proprietor of "Brown's Menagerie," specializes in eels and elephants. She recently received a shipment of Japanese beetles and due to a careless accident, there will be no green beans this season.

Marilyn Godshalk has been amazing the world by her deeds, one of which was outdoing the new Mechanical Brain. Her hobby is collecting bottle caps.

Jim Blocker, Civil Engineer, recently undertook the job of tunneling through the Rockies to shorten trips for Hollywood commuters.

John Kroh has just retired from the Puckahuddle Five and is now taking over the Chug-a-lug Drug store, which specializes in Peter Rinkerton's Pink Pills for Pale, Pallid People.

Jack Darr, owner and manager of the huge chain of hotels known all over the world as "Sleep-if-you-can Hotels" was recently married to Diane, champion pancake flip-flopper of Last Gasp, Siberia.

Richard Nolan, through many years of diligent and unwavering persistency, has acquired the ownership of the Chalk and Cue Pool Room.

Raymond Oyler, noted composer and orchestra leader, married Rosa Trillalotta, a soprano with the Phildiscordant Orchestra. His latest compositions are: The Third Suite and Concerto in the Fourth Flat. He is President of the Independent Order of Piccolo Players.

HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF 1951

I was waiting patiently in Mr. Slabaugh's office one day near the end of school to talk to him about graduation plans. From Evelyn, the office girl, I learned that I would have a long wait sinec our principal was in a Junior class meeting so I settled myself in his swivel chair. Looking around for something to read my eye fell upon what looked disgustingly like history books. Quickly I got up and walked to the bookshelves. There I found something much more interesting: a black leather edition with the inspiring title "Diary". I looked quickly to see if Mr. S. was coming, and satisfied that he was not, I turned to the first page. This is what I read:

"Entry #1--April 23, 1940....Another class has finished its first year of learning--the class of 1951. There were forty-three six-year-olds who started this year: Delores Jean Bell, Barbara Brown, Betty Lou Droke, Ruth Lavon Droke, Harriet Eppert, Marcia Fobes, Rosemary Gingerich, Sasha Ann Hire, Kathryn Huey, Katherine Kistler, Margaret Kitson, Patricia Koher, Marilyn Godshalk, Sharon LeCount, Mavle Rarig, Marilyn Russell, Marie Stiver, Joy Stuckman, Janis Weimer, Carlyle Baumgartner, Jim Blocker, Arlen Bobeck, Jon Bushong, Jack Darr, Paul Disher, Darrell Grisamer, Richard Kitson, John Kroh, Stephen Lung, Gareth Meek, Raymond Oyler, Ernest Rogers, Charles Reagan, Robert Sheire, Emory Stiffler, Delbert Strieby, Robert Gene Whitmer, Duane Devault, Richard Allan Hann, Oskar Holderman, Karl Hoover, Mary Maxine Snooks and Jackie Devault.

There was a lot of absence this year and as a result, grades went down for a grading period or two. There were epidemics of chicken pox, mumps, and whooping cough besides a few cases of pneumonia, sore throats, broken legs and car accidents.

The class already lost 5 members: Betty Lou Droke, Kathryn Huey, Duane Devault, Oskar Holderman and Karl Hoover."

"Entry #2--May 9, 1941....Before school started last fall Marcia Fobes, Marilyn Russell, Paul Disher, Delbert Strieby, and Robert Gene Whitman dropped out. New students this year were: Jack Dean and Lyman Lawson. Later Lyman Lawson left and Kathryn Huey came back to join the class. At the end of the year there were 35 energetic children working hard toward the goal of the third grade.

During one grading period there were 24 children out of school with measles."

"Entry #3--April 27, 1942...Welcomed into the class this year were: Janet Fangmeyer, Billie Draker, Carroll Walton, Donald Smith, Charles Unger, Robert Dean, Charlotte Miller and Richard Nolan. However, Janet Fangmeyer, and Charles Unger left the same year. Also leaving the class were: Delores Jean Bell, Janis Weimer, and Richard Hann. Miss Mary Ross did an excellent job of keeping this class under control this year."

1103656

"Entry #4--Qpril 16, 1943....This year our young students are under the leadership of Mrs. Gants. Ruth Lavon Droke, Carlyle Baumgartner, Jack Devault and Billie Draker left the companionship of their schoolmates. Jean Ann Lung, Alice Sapen, Lee Henry and Ronald Strieby came and left in the same year. These others also came this year: Frank Kranz, Ronald Price, David Williams, Richard Hann, and Joyce Nine.

"Entry #5--Qpril 24, 1944...Coming into the class were Harold Stabler, Jerry Kearney, Marjorie Wagner and Audrey Hamman. Leaving the class were Barbara Brown, Jack Dean, Carroll Walton, Robert Dean, Frank Kranz, and Lyman Lawson. James Sawyer entered and withdrew in the fifth grade.

"Entry #6--April 27, 1945....A ballteam began to take shape this year. John Kroh, Steve Lung, Jack Darr, Ernie Rogers, Garry Meek and Arlen Bobeck constituted this team. Mr. Cook Has prophecied that these boys will be the next team to be a tournament winner. They play together well so it would not be surprising.

Our new ones this year were Juanita Stahley, Shirley Koher, Jimmy Ritter, Virginia Ringler, Doris Sawyer, Bobbie Johnson, Jerry Kearney and Marjorie Wagner were the only ones to leave the class this year.

"Entry #7--April 23, 1946..The list of new students contained Mary McDonald, Barbara Brown, Majorie Wagner, Alma Strieby, Tom Gilbert and Arnold Grindle. Rosa Smith, Delores Evans, Boyd Kerr, Mary Cox came and left in this year. This class lost Mary Maxine Snooks, Audrey Hamman, Shirley Koher, and Patricia Koher.

"Entry #8--May 2, 1947....This year our class of '51 has with them Delores Jean Bell, Shirley Becknall, Ann Marie Meek, Audrey Hamman, Richard Hughes, Alfred Place, James Fry and Dwight Stahley, Those who came and left this year were John Bright, Guy Weaver and David Eiler. A large number dropped out of the register books this year: Marie Stiver, Mary Maxine Snooks, Donald Smith, Ronald Price, David Williams, Harold Stabler, Juanita Stahley, Jimmie Ritter, Virginia Ringler, Doris Sawyer, Mary McDonald, and Alma Strieby.

Well, the hunting spirit has started in these youngsters, too. Arlen Bobeck and Stephen Lung were out one day to go hunting.

Next year starts a new career and I am wondering into how much trouble they can and will get.

"Entry #9--This year the class lost fout and gained five. Coming in were Sondra Sigrist, Jack Dupree, Sharon Cotherman, Margaret Robinson, and William Gladieux. Leaving were Barbara Brown, Ernest Rogers, Robert Sheire, and Audrey Hamman.

Several of the students have joined the boys' and girls' chourses and band. Sasha Ann Hire is doing well with her twirling. I like the high school attitude of this class already. It has amazed me.

1103656

"Entry #10--May 27, 1949....Ten left the class, three came in and one came and left in the same year. Lost were Harriet Eppert, Mable Rarig, Emory Stiffler, Shirley Becknal, Richard Hughes, Albert Place, Dwight Stahley, Sondra Sigrist, Jack Dupree, Sharon Cotherman. Joining the class were Doris Hoover, Beverly Sink (the new coach's daughter), and Bob Sheire. Francis Moore came and left this year.

Parents and teachers (and drivers) have a few more worries this year. Several of our sophmores have become sixteen and evertone knows what that means. Stephen Lung, Jack Darr, Bill Gladieux, and Gareth Meek now have Drivers' licenses.

Mr. Cook's prophecy of the sixth grade came true and the team defeated Warsaw in the final game of the Sectional Tourney.

"Entry #11....The next to the last year of school with the class play, in which Sasha Hire, Bill Gladieux, Billie Kitson, and Jack Darr played the leading roles, Junior-Senior Prom, ballgames and selling candy, etc. Already they are beginning to worry about what they will do with their excess money at the end of next year.

Leaving the class were Jean Bell, Richard Hann, Marjorie Wagner, Tom Gilbert, Ann Marie Meek, and Doris Hoover. Nadena Coy came this year but did not stay very long. Dick Kitson, who had been ill for many years but was still studying with the class, passed away this year to the sorrow of his classmates. Dick was a fine student and everyone liked him.

"Entry 12--May, 1951...The last of the twelve years is nearly through and this year the class only lost two: Bob Sheire and Katherine Kistler. Barbara Brown come back this year and Janet Fenstermacher is the only new student.

Activities this year included the class play, pictures being taken, ballgames and tourneys, work on the annual, Senior girls entertained by the Wednesday Afternoon Club, the Junior-Senior get-together in the spring, and finally---graduation.

There were sixteen of the class who went through all twelve years together. They were Rosemary Gingerich, Sasha Hire, Margaret "Billie" Kitson, Marilyn Godshalk, Sharon LeCount, Joy Stuckman, Jim Blocker, Arlen Bobeck, Jon Bushong, Jack Darr, Darrell Grisamer, John Droh, Steve Lung, Garry Meek, Raymond Oyler, and Charles Reagan.

It's been a wonderful year for them and though "parting is such sweet sorrow", surely the class of 1951 will agree that it's been good to be together.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the class of 1951, in twenty-nine individual and distinct parts, being about to pass out of this sphere of education, in full possession of a crammed mind, well-trained memory, and almost superhuman understanding, do make and publish this, our last will and testament, hereby revoking and making void all former wills or promises by us at any time heretofore made, or mayhap, carelessly spoken, one to the other, as tht thoughtless wish of an idle hour.

I, Bill Gladieux, will my ability to stay away from the girls to anyone who can use it. I never could.

I, Rosemary Gingerich, will to Shirley Disher, my ability to refrain from insulting the boys so that I don't have to walk home.

I, John Kroh, will my ability to conceal my laughter in the study hall to Tom Roose.

I, Bobbie Johnson, will to Lucille Babcock my ability to talk all the time in home ec. class.

I, Jack Darr, will my long curly hair to Dina Mench.

I, Charlotte Miller, will to Connie Hoover my ability to get up in the morning and come to school.

I, Arnold Grindle, will to Louie Byland, my ability to play a slow, cool, clean game of basketball.

I, Joyce Nine, will my freckles to Norma Stabler.

I, Arlen Bobeck, will my ability to get arithmetic problems to Emory Stiffler.

I, Beverly Sink, will my "million dollar wiggle" to Joel Bates.

I, Gareth Meek, will to Ernest Rogers and Tom Roose a clean pair of pants so they will not have to wear the same pair of cords until they stand up in the corner when they take them off.

I, Sharon LeCount, will my "pepsi bounce" to Shirley Disher.

I, Stephen Lung, will my ability to never pester anyone in the study hall to Robert Nicolai, so that he too may get C's in deportment.

I, Katherine Kistler, will to my brother Clifford, my English book since he enjoys this subject so much.

I, Jim Fry, will my ability to get along without girls to Ernie Rogers.

I, Margaret Robinson, will my curly hair to Julia Williams.

1103656

I, Arnold Grindle, will to Bob Firestone my curly hair and good looks, and willpower to leave the girls alone.

I, Joyce Nine, will my quietness to Nancy Beamer.

I, Arlen Bobeck, will my ability to work hard in the study hall to Philip Nine.

I, Beverly Sink, will my slim figure to Ernie Rogers.

I, Gareth Meek, will my nose to Tom Roose so that he too may have a well-proportioned face.

I, Sharon LeCount will to Carole Miller, my ability to go steady.

I, Stephen Lung, will my height to Pete Doll.

I, Katherine Kistler, will Delores Druckamiller my height so she too may be tall.

I, Jim Fry, will my ability to keep cool in basketball practice to Joel Bates.

I, Barbara Brown, will my natural curly hair to Pat Spencer.

I, Margaret Robinson, will my civics book to Delores Druckamiller.

I, Darrell Grisamer, will my ability to skip school and not get caught to Ernie Rogers.

I, Joy Stuckman, will my messy desk to Lucille Babcock.

I, Richard Nolan, will to Roger Noe, my ability to keep wide awake in Longenbaugh's classes.

I, Marilyn Godshalk, will my short hair to Julia Williams.

I, James Blocker, will my ability to play the cornet to Clifford Kistler.

I, Sasha Hire, will to Louie Dyland, my record of "Frankie and Johnnie" so that he won't have to beg for it anymore.

I, Charles Reagan, will to Philip Nine my failure to understand where Mrs. Charleck gets the information she uses in speech meetings.

I, Kathryn Huey, will my ability to talk loud enough in class to be heard to Shirley Cripe.

I, Ray Oyler, will to Dale Plummer, my ability to give my undivided attention in civics class.

I, Billie Kitson, will all my out-of-town boy friends to Marcia Disher.

1103656

I, Jim Fry, will my ability to get along without girls to Ernie Rogers.

I, Darrell Grisamer, will to the Jumior boys my age so that they can become one of Uncle Sam's boys before I have.

I, Joy Stuckman, will my ablility to get a seat on a crowded school bus to Delores Druckamiller.

I, Richard Nolan, will my ability to behave in the study hall to Robert Nicolai.

I, Marilyn Godshalk, will to Pat Hapner my ability to do my work in school, so that she won't have to carry so many books home at night.

I, James Blocker, will my brown hair to Harold Stabler.

I, Sasha Hire, will the keys to my Chevie to Ernie Rogers and hope that he does not have as much trouble with his as I had with mine.

I, Charles Reagan, will to Pete Doll about 180 more enjoyable bus rides.

I, Kathryn Huey, will some of my weight to Dina Mench.

I, Billie Kitson, will my ability to sleep in the study hall to Carole Miller.

I, Ray Oyler, will some of my excess weight to Louie Byland.

I, Janet Fenstermacher, will my ability to walk gracefully up the ramp to Marcia Disher.

I, Jon Bushong, will my good looks and ability to make my hair stay the way I comb it to Roger Noe.

I, Bill Gladieux, will my ability to sit with a girl on the booster bus to Dale Plummer.

I, Rosemary Gingerich, will to Audrey Hamman, my ability to not allow Mr. Slabaugh to make me become all nervous and upset in geometry class, or any other time for that matter.

I, John Kroh, will my ability to be elected class president to any junior boy, so that the class may be run the men's way.

I, Bobbie Johnson, will my towering height to Donna Cleghorn, and may she be able to handle it better than I do.

I, Jack Darr, will my ability to shave once a week to any girl who would like to be in a circus.

I, Charlotte Miller, will my civics book to Shirley Cripe, as she enjoys this subject so much.

I, Jon Bushong, will to Bob Firestone, my beard so he too may shave once a week.

I, Janet Fenstermacher, will to Charlotte Nolan my profound bashfulness.

To the class of 1952, we will our ability to get along with each other in our own class.

To the class of 1953, we will our ability to have as fine basketball records as we did when we began as sophomores.

To the class of 1954, we will our ability to advance the next three years with as little trouble as we had.

To Mr. Barnhart, a piece of soft coal, so when he fires the furnace in slippers he won't smash his toes.

To Mrs. Carwile, a chauffeur for her trips home so she won't wind up missing school as a result.

To Mr. Carwile, a man to run the snow plow on below-zero days.

To Mr. Garner, a rod with knob and feather on respective ends for pupils who sleep or don't pay attention, and who prop their feet on desks.

T10536

To Miss Gladieux, an adding machine so it will be easier to keep track of marks and noons she gives.

To Mr. Gustafson, two wads of cotton for his ears in S.H.S. so they won't tingle.

To Miss Hamman, a box or platform so she will be able to talk to pupils without shouting.

To Mr. Longenbaugh, one tie he doesn't have, a dull railroad tie.

To Mr. Sink, padding for his arms when he becomes engaged in fisticuffs.

To Mr. Slabaugh, a swivel chair for the Senior President. He'll need one if next year's president spends as much time in the office as J. K..

Dear Marcia,
Hope we have
"Hi" Ho!
Sincerely yours,
Bill

To the most wonderful friend and most grand babe as much fun as we have had as we have had this year. Of course this year can't compare to the "Class of '51"!!!
